Re Milwaukee airtel dated 1/16/70.

For the information of Milwaukee, [redacted] was indicted September 29, 1967, by a Federal Grand Jury, Chicago, Illinois, for causing two cartons of obscene material to be shipped from New York City to Chicago, Illinois, on or about September 9, 1967. Cartons contained publications produced by a Scandinavian news agency entitled "A' Mor" numbers 1, 2, 3, and 4. These publications depicted female nudes in various lewd positions, primarily spread or beaver type poses.

b6
b7C

The above publications were submitted to United States District Court Judge HUBERT WILL for review. On February 28, 1968, Assistant United States Attorney (AUSA) [redacted] advised Judge WILL had reviewed the publications, and it was Judge WILL's opinion that in order for material to be classified obscene, the material must be a "blazen display of obscenity" and should include photographs of actual sexual intercourse.

b7C

On April 30, 1968, AUSA [redacted] appeared before Judge WILL and requested the indictment against [redacted] be dismissed.

b6
b7C

On January 29, 1969, AUSA [redacted] advised it was his opinion that the same type of material as "A' Mor" could be utilized for a superseding indictment of [redacted], provided the element of pandering was added. Note: Pandering concept deals with, 1) advertising and promotional materials that stress sexual candor of publications, 2) publication covers emphasize

bookstore clerk
is fined $100

APPLETON — An Appleton bookstore clerk, found guilty of selling obscene publications to a minor Monday, was fined $100 and court costs.

Fred Corvelli, 31, a clerk at the Appleton Bookstore, 902 W. Wisconsin Ave., who earlier pleaded innocent, changed his plea to guilty before Outagamie County Judge Urban Van Susteren. He had been awaiting trial before that judge after filing a writ of prejudice with Judge Nick Schaefer.

The judge condemned the clerk's action, saying he regretted the maximum penalty was only $100. He told the defendant that "you nauseate me," and citing the high costs of the publications (nearly $10 for two newspapers and two paperbacks) said that "I can't think of any depravity that you wouldn't readily sink to just for the sake of money."

B & H Distributing Corporation, New York, New York; Bark Book Distributors, Inc., New York, ITOM," (OO: Milwaukee) MI 145-286, NY 145-3056, a cardboard carton containing ten nude magazines was shipped to the Book Nook at El Paso, Texas, in the fall of 1969, and according to the records of the Whitfield Transportation Company in El Paso, Texas, the shipment was refused by the Book Nook. This shipment was subsequently turned over to the FBI. At the request of the Assistant U. S. Upon receipt of New York letter to El Paso, dated 6/25/70, this matter was discussed with Assistant U. S. Attorney [REDACTED] at El Paso, Texas, who advised that he would decline prosecution in the Western District of Texas at El Paso, Texas, on the Book Nook at El Paso and on B & H Distributing Company at New York inasmuch as the Book Nook in El Paso is no longer selling questionable material and since the records of the Whitfield Transportation Company
